

The County of Centre

PROCLAMATION

NUMBER 32 OF 2021

WHEREAS, we recognize that it takes a cooperative, community effort to end child sexual abuse, and preventing child sexual abuse addresses a root cause of social problems including violent crime, homelessness, teen pregnancy, health problems, and substance abuse; and

WHEREAS, statistics show that one in ten children are sexually abused before their 18th birthday; and

WHEREAS, 90% of abused children are abused by someone that they and their caregivers know and trust; and

WHEREAS, eliminating or reducing isolated, one-on-one situations and screening those who care for children in youth serving settings decreases the risk of child sexual abuse; and

WHEREAS, learning to recognize and react responsibly to signs, disclosures, and suspicions of sexual abuse can protect children from further harm; and

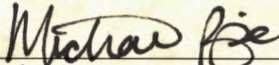

WHEREAS, training adults in evidence-informed prevention programs such as Stewards of Children® has been proven to increase knowledge, improve attitudes, and change child protective behaviors;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED the Centre County Board of Commissioners does hereby proclaim October 2021 as "Centre County Protects Kids Month," and encourages adult citizens to learn more about their role in protecting children from child abuse.

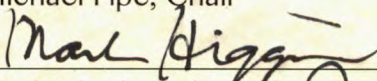

ADOPTED this 5th day of October 2021.
